AN ACCOUNT OF Nineteen REBELS That was Executed at Taunton-Dean, in the County of SOMERSET:

On VVednesday the 30*th*. of September, 1685. For High-Treason againſt His moſt Sacred

MAJESTIE, &c.

AFter many diſapointments in under-hand contrivances, and malicious machinations; the reſtles Faction grown big with miſchief, being no longer capable to hide their Rancor, gave it vent, though to their Shame and Confuſion; for as it has in moſt Ages been Evident that Heaven fruſtrates and blaſts evil Purpoſes and wicked Deſigns; ſo more eſpecially in this it has appeared even to a miracle, and peculiarly in the preſervation of his moſt Sacred *Ma*jeſty the beſt of Princes, and ſubduing his Enemies under his Feet, to render all good men entirely happy, and to bring thoſe to Condeign Puniſhment, which neither clemency nor mildneſs were able to reduce too, or retain in their due Obedience to their Lawful Sovereign; ſo that where Mercy cannot prevail, it is very reaſonable Juſtice ſhould take place, and Examplary Puniſhment reſtrain by fear, where Favour and Indulgence proves ineffectual; that Treaſon and Traytorous Deſigns, thoſe bains of Kingdoms and diſturbers of Common-Peace and Tranquility may be rooted out, or at leaſt overwhelmed, to a degree of rendring them impotent, and warn thoſe who have been, or hereafter ſhall be tempted by ſuch guiled baits of Ruin by ſad Example, to fly and avoid them, as they tender their Safety and

Reputation

Reputation, which had these Persons whose Names follow, and who deservedly fell by the hand of Justice done, it might have proved happy to them and their Posterity; but entering upon an unjust and unnatural Rebellion, being by Divine Providence frustrated by their wicked undertaking: They were taken in the Pit they had diged for others, and being with many more brought to Justice, and Plain Proof made out against them, they received Sentence of Death as Rebels and Traytors against their King and Natural Lord, which Sentence was on VVednesday the 30*th.* of September put in Execution, in the manner under mentioned, upon Nineteen of them.

On the 30*th.* of September aforesaid.

Abraham Ainsly of VVapping, by Trade a Tallow-Chandler.
Arthur Mathews of London.
VVilliam Jenkins of London, Son to VVilliam Jenkins, the Non-conformist Minister, who some time since dyed in Newgate.
Benjamin Heuling of London, Merchant
John Dryer of Taunton.
John Hucker of Taunton.
Jonathan England of Taunton.
John Sharp of Taunton.
Percy Morrin of Taunton.
John Savage of Taunton.
John Fricker of Taunton.
John VVilliams of Taunton.
John Petram of Taunton.
James VVhettam of Taunton.
John Trickey of Taunton.
VVilliam Satchel of Taunton.
VVilliam Davison of VVellington.
Henry Lisle of London, Linnen-Draper.
Robert Parrot of Shorditch, in the Suburbs of London a Brewer, Notoriously known, as a Party actually concerned in stealing the Crown out of the Tower of London, in the Reign of his late Majesty, (of Blessed Memory) and thereby incurr'd the Penalty of Death, but was pardoned by that Gracious Prince; yet such transcendent Goodness and Dispensation of Mercy, was not sufficient to deter him from entering into a Rebellion against his Royal Brother, our present most sacred Sovereign, for which he met his just Reward.

All these, the Day before mentioned, were conveyed with a strong Guard to a Triangle Gallows plac'd on the Corn-Hill, at Taunton Dean, in the County of Somerset, where according to their Sentence they were Executed.
